Summary of Dorset Golf Captains' Committee meeting held 5th August 2021

The meeting was held at the Dorset G&CC with 8 committee members present.

Insurance of trophies.

It was agreed to purchase the annual insurance quoted by Howdens Insurance brokers to insure our trophies while they were in the keeping of our winners.

John Campbell Resignation

On 1st August 2021 John Campbell requested his name be removed from the DGC membership list.

Peter Aisthorpe-Buckley deceased

Peter had died from Covid at the weekend. The secretary was instructed to refund the entry monies he had paid but not used with a letter of condolence to his family.

Fixtures

The President's 9-hole Challenge at Canford School was considered a success and it was agreed to continue the event annually.

It was agreed that we ask team members to book their own accommodation for the 2022 Devon and Cornwall matches at Launceston and Tavistock.

The Vice-Captain undertook to speak to the caterer at Bridport & West Bay GC in response to an email requesting we alter our match timing for the benefit of the caterer.

50th Anniversary Celebration

The original choice of ballmarker had been found to be unavailable and another of similar cost had been chosen. We would arrange menu choices for the dinner to be made online.

Replacement Saunton Salver competition

Saunton had stated that they would not organise their Salver competition again. We agreed to investigate whether we might organise a replacement competition.
